Chancery Causes: Hugh Delph vs. Louisa Delph

Wirich, Craig

CA-Divorce
T-Vices

To the Honorable H. A. W. Skeen Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia:

Humbly complaining your complainant would respectfully represent and show unto your honor, that in the year 1909, he married one Louisa Wirich, that they lived together as husband and wife, for about three months, when your complainant was convinced that his said wife was committing acts of adultery with one Wm. Craig and others, at Hagan Virginia and in vicinity thereof.

Your complainant at once left her and has not lived nor co-habited with her since he had knowledge of her acts of adultery, Your complainant alleges that said acts of adultery were committed without his procurement or connivance, and were within five years before the institution of this suit. Your complainant is now and has been all his life a resident and citizen of Lee County Virginia.

The prayer of your complainant is that the said Louisa Delph be made a party defendant to this bill and be made to answer the same but not upon oath that being waived, that your complainant be granted a divorce, a vincule matrimonii from his said wife, that proper process may issue, and that your honor grant all other and further relief generally that the nature of his case may require or to equity seem meet and he will ever pray &c.
